Wanderly Travel Insurance - Policy Wording (Version 3.2, effective 1 January 2026)

1 About this policy

This document sets out the cover provided to the insured person named on the certificate of insurance. All amounts are in Australian dollars.

1.1 How to read this policy

Words in this policy have the meanings given in Section 2. Where a diagram in this policy sets out a claims process, the diagram forms part of the policy wording.

2 Definitions

2.1 Trip

The period from the departure date to the return date on the certificate of insurance.

2.2 Pre-existing condition

Any illness or injury for which the insured person received treatment, medication or advice in the 24 months before the policy purchase date.

2.3 Unattended

Left where the insured person cannot see the item and is not in a position to prevent it being taken.

3 Cover and limits

3.1 Benefit table

The maximum amounts payable per insured person per trip are:
Medical and hospital expenses: $50,000.
Trip cancellation: $5,000.
Luggage and personal items: $3,000 in total and no more than $500 for any single item.
Travel delay: $150 for each full 12 hours of delay, up to $600.

3.2 Medical and hospital expenses

We pay reasonable overseas medical and hospital expenses for an illness or injury that first occurs during the trip.

3.3 Trip cancellation

We pay non-refundable trip costs if the trip is cancelled before departure for a reason outside the insured person's control, such as their own hospitalisation.

3.4 Luggage and personal items

We pay for luggage and personal items stolen, lost or damaged during the trip, up to the limits in the benefit table. Theft claims must follow the process in 5.3.

3.5 Travel delay

We pay the travel delay benefit if a scheduled departure is delayed by more than 6 hours for a reason outside the insured person's control.

4 Exclusions

4.1 Pre-existing conditions

We do not pay claims arising from a pre-existing condition unless it was declared and accepted in writing when the policy was purchased.

4.2 Unattended items

We do not pay for luggage or personal items stolen while unattended.

4.3 Cancellation waiting period

We do not pay trip cancellation claims where the cancellation occurs within 14 days after the policy purchase date.

5 Making a claim

5.1 Claim deadline

Claims must be submitted within 60 days after the incident date. Claims submitted later than this are not payable.

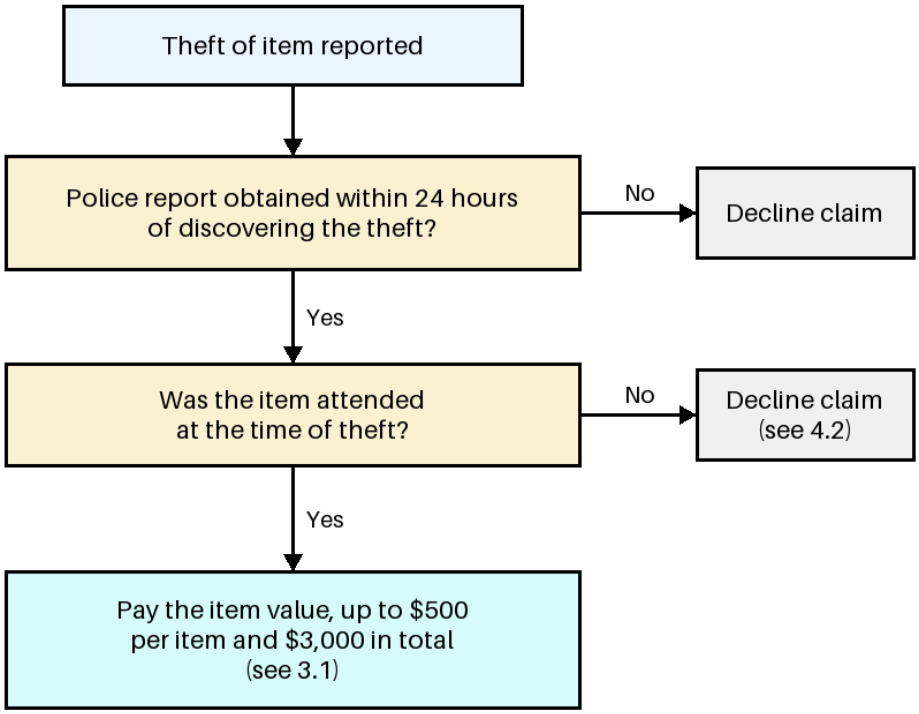

5.2 Supporting documents

Receipts or proof of ownership are required for any item or expense over $100. Medical claims require an itemised invoice from the treating provider.

5.3 Theft of luggage and personal items

Theft claims are assessed using the process shown in the diagram below.

Figure 5.3 - Theft claim assessment

5.4 Referral to a senior assessor

Claims with a total claimed amount over $10,000, or where documents conflict on a material fact such as dates or amounts, are referred to a senior assessor and are not decided automatically.